

GENOA LIVESTOCK
HERDSMAN POSITION
1/30/2024

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

- * Valid Drivers license; insurance for personal vehicle.
- * Physically able to move/lift/maneuver up to 50 lbs.
- * Experience with low stress cattle handling. We do not use horses.
- * Ability to work independently or with a team.
- * Ability to perform all aspects of cow/calf operation work, including winter night-time calving in cold temperatures.
- * A willingness to learn new skills/jobs.

WINTER RESPONSIBILITIES:

- * Spring calving from mid-February to May first.
- * Work as part of the team to background calves
- * Inspect heifers and bulls being developed in feed lot
- * Irrigation infrastructure maintenance and improvements
- * Check stock water
- * Put out minerals
- * Help with show cattle

SPRING/SUMMER RESPONSIBILITIES:

- * Herd health and records of doctoring
- * Processing cows and calves
- * Synchronizing breeding groups for implanting embryos and AI
- * Identifying and doctoring sick cattle
- * Putting out minerals
- * Pasture rotation with record keeping
- * Repair water troughs and fencing
- * Assist with irrigation as needed (flood irrigation)
- * Building and moving electric fencing
- * Assist with ranch infrastructure projects as time allows
- * Organizing and cleaning work areas (barns and shops)
- * Other tasks that arise in a cattle operation
- * Annual Fall production sale preparation, clipping, working cattle in picture pen (slow and steady)